

The University of Georgia

School of Public and International Affairs
Office of the Dean

To Whom It May Concern:

Andrew P. Owsiak and John Willingham are affiliated with the Department of International Affairs at the University of Georgia (Athens, Georgia, United States of America). They are currently conducting a study entitled "The Process of Border Settlement in the Northern Ireland Dispute." As part of this study, they will conduct interviews and solicit survey responses (among community and political leaders, as well as the general public) in Ireland, Northern Ireland, and the United Kingdom.

For additional information about this project, please contact Andrew P. Owsiak, the principal investigator associated with this study, at:

Andrew Owsiak
Assistant Professor
Department of International Affairs
University of Georgia
Third Floor, Candler Hall
Athens, Georgia, United States of America 30602
Telephone: +1 (706) 542-6705
email: aowskiak@uga.edu

Questions or concerns about the rights of participants in the study should be directed to:
The Chairperson
University of Georgia Institutional Review Board
629 Boyd GSRC
Athens, GA 30602
Telephone: +1 (706) 542-3199
email: irb@uga.edu

Sincerely,

Stefanie Lindquist
Dean and Arch Professor of International Affairs
School of Public and International Affairs
University of Georgia